Student Trainee (Economics)- Pathways Intern GS-0199-07/09

An excellent opportunity for undergraduate and graduate students to gain valuable research experience by assisting highly-skilled economists and/or social scientists and to work with ERS models and data sets. These positions require individuals with a solid foundation in economic theory and strong quantitative skills; experience with data collection, econometric analysis, data base management and/or mathematical programming and models; and good communications skills. Interns participate in a wide variety of research projects involving agriculture and environment, domestic and international markets, agricultural and trade policy, food safety, diet and nutrition, consumer economics, rural development, and agricultural finance.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Economics majors or related fields
- Graduate student in economics or related fields

Location: 355 E Street, SW • Washington, DC 20024-3221

Salary: Based on education, approximately starting at $21/hr

You Must Be:

- U.S. citizen
- Currently have been accepted for enrollment or is enrolled in a college or university and will be continuing in the fall semester

Position Information:

- Appointment: Temporary
- Job Status:
- Full-TimeSummer interns may work from May 1 to September 30, 2017

For applying to the position visit:

Applications Must Be Received Via usajobs.gov By MARCH 3, 2017.

For more information, visit ERS website: http://www.ers.usda.gov or contact Loretta T. Miller, erssummerinterns@ers.usda.gov or (202) 694.5379

Organization: USDA Economic Research Service
Job Application Link: Student Trainee (Economics)- Pathways Intern GS-0199-07/09
Post Date: Friday, February 17, 2017
Job Application Deadline: Friday, March 3, 2017
Job Description Upload: usda_ers_summer_intern_recruitmen.docx
Known Job Application Deadline: Yes

Source URL: http://dev.economics.yale.edu/undergraduate/employment-opportunities/student-trainee-economics-pathways-intern(gs-0199-0709)